

Bid Submission Information

This section will contain instructions in a Question and Answer format for the web application to be used by all bidders. The web application is the tool all bidders are required to use to submit their capitation bids for the request for proposal process. In addition, this section contains the screen layouts of the web application.